Comments

- The I-551 stamp on a valid passport, the immigrant visa on the passport or the ADIT stamp will serve as proof of status as Lawful Permanent Resident (LPR).
- If the date is expired, the applicant will need a receipt for I-90 from Department of Homeland Security (DHS) indicating they have applied for replacement I-551 card.
- The valid I-551 stamp on the valid passport must have the alien registration number.
- If it has only eight digits, add a '0' in the front of it to make it nine digits.
- See the Verification of Lawful Status System section (LIR18) for the FDLIS issuance requirements.
